

Robert Trevino, Executive Director, San Antonio Philharmonic

Roberto Carlos Treviño brings a wealth of diverse experience and a deep commitment to the cultural and civic life of San Antonio in his role as the Executive Director of the San Antonio Philharmonic. As a former city councilman and a registered architect in the state of Texas, Roberto possesses a unique blend of leadership, civic engagement, and a strong background in the arts.

Throughout his tenure as a city councilman, Roberto demonstrated a passion for advocating the intersection of arts, culture, and community development, fostering an environment where the arts can thrive and contribute to the city's vitality. His advocacy for urban design, public spaces and social justice issues has left a lasting impact on the city's landscape, reflecting his belief in the transformative power of art and architecture in enhancing quality of life.

His respect for a life cultivated by art, coupled with his practical skills, positions him as a dynamic leader with a unique ability to harness the potential of the San Antonio Philharmonic as a cultural force that enriches the lives of all residents and visitors alike.

Roberto's multifaceted background and unwavering dedication to the arts and community make him an invaluable asset in guiding the San Antonio Philharmonic towards continued artistic excellence, community engagement, and a lasting legacy of cultural enrichment in the vibrant city of San Antonio.
