Executive Director, El Camino de San Antonio Missions

Hon. Rebecca Simmons is the executive director of El Camino de San Antonio Missions, a new evangelization program of the Archdiocese of San Antonio Texas that encourages pilgrimages to the four eighteenth century Spanish Colonial Mission churches and San Fernando Cathedral. She is a former district and appellate judge as well as a recognized author and speaker on a variety of legal topics.

Rebecca developed her interest and love of the missions by leading her sixth-grade religious education groups on pilgrimages to the missions on bicycle. Over the years, the group has grown to include over 100 adults and children of the parish. As a National Association of Interpreters Certified Interpretive Guide, she continues to accompany pilgrims along the river trail that links the missions and Cathedral. A member of Our Lady of Grace parish, she has taught religious education to sixth graders for over 30 years. Rebecca resides in San Antonio with her husband and three children.
